

State of Denial Rampant Among PM Leaders!

Presented December 2013 by Charles Savoie

“There is no point in using the word 'impossible' to describe something that has clearly happened.”

Douglas Adams, author.

“I hold very strong convictions about censorship. I don't believe in forbidden knowledge.”

---Andrea Cremer, author.

“Nothing weighs so heavily on us as a secret.”

---Jean de la Fontaine (1621-1695) French author.

“The truth must dazzle gradually else every man be blind.”

---Emily Dickinson author (1830-1886).

“To forbid us anything is to make us have a mind for it.”

---Michel de Montaigne (1533-1592), French Renaissance author.

“The second day is worse than the first; we return to the rack with all the soreness of the preceding torture in our limbs.”

— Nathaniel Hawthorne (1804-1864) in “House of the Seven Gables” (1851)

“By strength of will we cut off our inner intuitive knowledge from admitted consciousness. This causes a state of dread, or apprehension, which makes the blow ten times worse when it does fall.” ---D.H. Lawrence, author.

Gold and silver have been under a generations long attack---a planned attack---a conspiracy--- spanning centuries. The “centre” of international banking time, London, is also the ultimate source of the organized suppression, with United States participants likely the junior partners, certainly as to seigniority. The metals suppression can be traced to many dates; however, tracing it to the Crime of 1873 is an attribute of novice historians. As far as England goes---and that is the most important country to metals suppression---it can be traced at least to 1572, when Sir Francis Drake, having been commissioned by The Crown as a privateer, first seized Spanish silver, gold and emeralds on the high seas en route to Spain. English raids on valuable Spanish cargo, and the matter of England having distanced itself from Papal influence under Henry VIII, were the vast majority of the cause of the Spanish armada sailing to attack England in 1588. Very opportunistically, the English used smaller, faster, more maneuverable boats to spread fire among the armada, which was also hindered by weather. For most of the centuries since 1588, “Britannia Rules the Waves” has been a true boast. Absent the Spanish defeat in 1588, we all very likely would have Spanish as our primary language, and many more of us would be Catholic! Since 1588, The Crown has held the upper hand in world affairs over the Vatican, by means of its navy and later more importantly, its mastery of central banking---notwithstanding its much longer reign of influence such as in The Holy Roman Empire. In 800 AD Pope Leo III crowned Charlemagne emperor over what we now call France. By the latter half of the next century territory under Papal influence expanded to Germany, Austria, Netherlands, Belgium, Switzerland and other states, and is generally reckoned to have ended in 1806 AD with the rise of Napoleon when he was 37. Napoleon correctly stated---

“I am surrounded by priests who repeat incessantly that their kingdom is not of this world, and yet they lay hands on everything they can get.”

The Pope, like the Crown, also has a financial arm---The Knights of Malta, a very powerful group, yet decidedly lesser scale than The Pilgrims Society. J. Peter Grace, Pilgrims 1969 leaked list, a banking and chemical magnate, was head of the Knights of Malta in the U.S., suggesting Crown penetration of this Vatican sponsored group! His listing in “Who’s Who” mentioned his Knights office, but was silent on his Pilgrims membership. Both the Crown and the Pope believe they must run the world! Allegations that the Jesuits boss the Royals are mere gibbering noises! Included in the booty of Sir Francis Drake’s first high seas raid in 1572 was 34 tons of silver originally destined for Spain
<http://www.atocha1622.com/sir.htm>

Also at this link we note (emphasis added) ---

“In 1585 Drake set out with a fleet of 25 ships and 2,300 men to cross the Atlantic and attack Spanish ports, hoping to weaken England’s rival AND CUT OFF HER SUPPLY OF GOLD AND SILVER.”

England had a strategic military advantage over other European colonial powers, as it shared no land border with any of them, being insulated by the sea in the same manner as a moat adds protection to a castle. The English have recognized literally for centuries that to control the world, to achieve and maintain monetary supremacy over other nations, it had to strongly interfere with the precious metals acquisition, and internal use thereof, by competing powers; by the 18th century it understood that spreading central banks, patterned after the BOE, was essential. Montagu Norman, a BOE governor, refused to visit any nation not having a central bank. On March 3, 1579, Drake and his armed crew captured the biggest loot so far from the Spanish---20 tons of silver, 13 cases of silver coins, 80 pounds of gold, plus pearls and gemstones. In autumn of 1580 the Crown made Drake mayor of Plymouth, England. Drake was also a slave trader and the first navigator to sail around the globe. Francis Drake remains a national hero in England, but to Spain, he may be their version of Hitler, and seen as a terrible thief. This is what England has done to the world for centuries---stolen wealth. Not that the Spanish, French or Dutch had better intentions. However it was the English who achieved the upper hand, yet with a strange alliance with the Dutch royals, which we won't address here. Sir Eric Drake (1910-1996), who chaired British Petroleum, is of the Drake ancestry and was a member of The Pilgrims Society London and a governor of the pro-fiat money London School of Economics.

On December 31, 1600, by Royal charter of the Crown, the British East India Company saw its inception. The English used it for multiple purposes of sucking immense wealth out of vast territories. As concerns its trade with China, it was set up to "recover" silver paid to China tracing back centuries to the fabled "Silk Road" (think Marco Polo and the gem merchant Tavernier, who weren't part of the BEI Company) which also had a maritime route and more so by means of the later ocean going trade vessels from various colonial powers, especially Britain. By turning many millions of Chinese into opium addicts, England "recovered" much of the silver China gained in many generations of trade with occidental nations. A 31 page account of this is available at <http://nosilvernationalization.org/30.pdf> "Silver Users And Opium" originally released at Silver Investor in March 2004; and <http://nosilvernationalization.org/114.pdf> released in February 2013 "Correcting Antal Fekete's Historical Silver Errors."

In 1693 Coutts Bank was founded as private bankers to The Crown; on July 27, 1694 a Royal charter was granted to the Bank of England, founded by a Scot named William Paterson, who advocated more unity with England. The dreadful motto of the BOE was, "The Bank hath benefit of interest on all monies which it creates out of nothing." From the start of New World colonization, the British have controlled our monetary system, occasionally with lapses in their influence (none in our lifetimes). British control, very overbearing, in taxation, finance and trade in the colonies, was a prime motive for the Revolutionary War. Unfortunately, the British didn't have to prevail militarily, to prevail "essentially." In 1791 the first United States Bank was chartered, giving England sub rosa control over our finances. The main domestic power in the bank was Stephen Girard, easily the wealthiest man in late colonial/Revolutionary War and post Revolutionary War times. It was often noted that British naval frigates left Girard's trading vessels unmolested on the high seas and could easily have blocked them from arriving in port. Girard was the wealthiest American until later eclipsed by the "landlord of New York," John Jacob Astor, who was the main domestic power in the second United States Bank, operator of the American Fur Company which terribly mistreated native peoples and defrauded its own trappers and traders; Astor also had a piece of England's Chinese opium "trade." In 1977-1983 Lord Astor was president of The Pilgrims London!

Recently I released several presentations which few sites chose to post or even allow mention of---"Jonathan Frid Vomits On Silver" <http://silverstealers.net/jfvos.pdf> about Jeffrey Christian and Gary Gensler, outgoing CFTC chief, both having served at Goldman Sachs under John Cunningham Whitehead (Pilgrims Society official) ---a key "globalist" in this organization I've attempted to spotlight since December 2004, "The Pilgrims Society.” Subsequent to the Jeffrey Christian item I released “Everything Happens Due to Bungling Nothing Is Planned” which was posted at only a few sites <http://www.silverbearcafe.com/p> and <http://www.brotherjohnf.com/ar> and <http://www.youtube.com/watch> and at <http://www.silvermarketnews.com/articles/E> This subtracts no income from me as I have always researched and written noncompensated strictly in the public interest and have provided many times more details than anyone, anywhere selling any book on silver. Those books have their place. However, members of the PM community who feel free to ask questions (you do reserve that right I assume) may care to inquire of major sites, “What is the issue?” None of them have made the slightest gesture to say “this fact is in error” or “Savoie falsified this particular reference from 1928” or other such dispute of detail. No challenge to the presentations---none! But---no coverage! The problem is twofold---first, sites are afraid of offending certain people and entities and more importantly, second, they are in denial as to the problems in precious metals emanating from a massive, international, organized conspiracy! Why are many leading metals sites complaining about silence of mining managements and boards of directors, yet they themselves are silent as to this “Pilgrims” problem, which cuts to the heart of the suppression? It is not bullion banks, governments, central banks, nor users associations which are and have long been attacking silver---it is a membership organization deeply hidden from public view attacking silver and gold. It isn’t what the metals sites are saying---it’s what they aren’t saying! Great pressure could be brought to bear against this anti-free market organization if those it is attacking would recognize its existence and its activities. So far, the messenger has been largely ignored. It just can’t be because I don’t wear suits and ties!

On December 3, 2013, Gold Anti-Trust Action Committee complained <http://www.gata.org/node/13327> about how the gold and silver mining managements ignored one of the GATA actions in 2011---

"The monetary metals mining industry did nothing to publicize it."

As of December 2004, originally released at Silver Investor, I identified this single organization responsible for and coordinating attacks against gold and silver as money, against private ownership thereof, and against their commodity prices for over one hundred years in "Meet The World Money Power" <http://nosilvernationalization.org/40.pdf> this British/American group calling itself "The Pilgrims Society," and GATA has no trace of interest in mentioning it---none! There was and is nothing to stop them, but something did and something continues to! A mundane explanation would be my original thought---they are limelight hogs who, if they didn't get to information first, deny coverage to those who did (but they have covered many others)---or---the account offered by Jeff Nielson more recently, "GATA Now Funded By Rothschilds Dirty Money" on November 8, 2013 <http://www.bullionbullscanada.com/gold-commentary/26446-gata-now-funded-with-rothschilds-dirty-money> is more likely! Gold Anti-Trust Action Committee may be "controlled opposition," who say all the right things---except---there is this profound area to which they refuse to go! GATA is a dog which will not hunt! The Pilgrims Society is the source of this war on monetary metals! I checked several dozen articles by Nielson at his site. There is a way for readers to rate his presentations; all of his other articles I checked received a rating of 5 (the best) whereas his item faulting GATA got a rating of 3---like a 60% score versus a score of 100! Apparently the "GATA army" mobilized at the behest of its August leadership to vote the item down; that article also has way more people rating it than any other I saw there! However, when I checked, only 68 had rated it (yes, I unhesitatingly gave it a 5). Nielson presented a written question and answer interview with me on November 11, 2011, which received a 5 rating and appeared as a link at other sites <http://www.bullionbullscanada.com/index.php> Did Chris Powell and Bill Murphy overlook to ask their "army" to vote my interview down? Will they do so now? Friends here is the problem with GATA and other sites---many other sites blacklisting the information I have been attempting (with some sizeable cooperation elsewhere) to present--- (first document following dates from 1957) and these are only a few by way of for instance

"There is something about a closet that makes a skeleton terribly restless."

---John Barrymore, author.

"No one ever seizes power with the intention of relinquishing it."

---George Orwell in "1984."

"It is the destiny of the weak to be devoured by the strong."

---Otto Von Bismarck (1815-1898), German Chancellor.

"The higher a man stands on the social ladder, the greater the number of people he is connected with, the more power he has over other people, the more obvious is the predestination and inevitability of his every action."

Leo Tolstoy (Russian author, 1828-1910) in "War and Peace."

“Most people, given the choice to face a hideous or terrifying truth or to conveniently avoid it, choose the convenience and peace of normality.”---Jim Butcher, author of “Turn Coat.”

“What better way for a ruling class to claim and hold power than to pose as the defenders of the nation.”

---Christopher Hitchens, author.

“All governments suffer a recurring problem: Power attracts pathological personalities.”

---Frank Herbert, novelist.

No known textbook on government or political science mentions that the President (commander in chief of the armed forces) and the Secretary of State (all Ambassadors report to the SS) are “honorary” members of this British Crown sponsored group, which in addition to controlling our monetary system (the FED is acknowledged as being modeled after the Bank of England), are intent on recapturing their “colonies” here and merging countries under the aegis of the United Nations. These documents and far more are available as public interest free access information at www.silverstealers.net (over twice the size of the original release at Silver Investor and Silver Bear Café, which contributed much to informing the community). Myron Taylor and other of these worthy gentlemen were confidants of Franklin Roosevelt---who stole gold and silver from Americans! Members of the J.P. Morgan dynastic clan were here---Junius Morgan. Pierpont V. Davis represented the Harriman interests (railroads and private banking) and was treasurer of the Wolf’s Head Society, a counterpart to Skull & Bones at Yale. Bullock, a second generation member, had offices at 1 Wall Street and was a member of the lower level, more visible, yet very important,

Order of the British Empire. Why should Americans get inducted into Crown sponsored groups, especially The Pilgrims? They have long since been persuaded to join this British campaign to run the planet! Taylor was a magnate in envelopes, tire production and cotton mills, then was on the executive committee of U.S. Steel; he benefitted hugely from war industries and was from 1939 to 1950 the President's personal envoy to the Vatican---a post for a Crown agent! Additionally Taylor was a trustee of Cornell University; Wells College; Robert College; American Academy in Rome; and a director of First National Bank of New York. Gifford headed American Telephone & Telegraph for 23 years and was a major figure in war industry in both World Wars; he was a director of First National Bank of New York; an overseer of Harvard University and a trustee of Johns Hopkins University (bet their economics departments were down on silver) and in 1950 he was appointed Ambassador to Britain.

Beekman was of an old Dutch colonial family with large scale landholdings in high value areas. Halsey was the Admiral in command of the Third Fleet in World War II and was descended from Rufus King whose wife was a great niece of Governor John Winthrop of the Massachusetts Bay Colony; King was a Senator from New York with the Federalist Party for almost 19 years who supported both the first and second United States Banks and became minister to England in 1825 and his brother was first Governor of Maine; after naval retirement Halsey became a director of subsidiaries of the ITT Corporation; Kleitz was a director of Guaranty Trust of New York (Morgan group) and of Inspiration Consolidated Copper; Royal Liverpool Insurance; IBM; Commerce & Industry Association of New York and a member of the New York State Banking Board as well as acting as investment manager for the American Institute of Mining & Metallurgical Engineers and a trustee of Sarah Lawrence College and a member of the corporation of Presbyterian Hospital of New York. John Mortimer Schiff, a second generation member whose son David T. also became a member, was a Wall Street financier on boards such as Westinghouse; Kennecott Copper; Getty Oil; Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad. Schiff's father helped finance the overthrow of the Tsarist government in Russia during World War I and was on record as a silver antagonist. Schiff was son in law of second generation Pilgrims member George F. Baker Jr., whose father (both Pilgrims) was on over 50 boards, mostly railroads and banking and had an incredibly long obituary in the New York Times and was a member of the Jekyll Island, Georgia Club (site of the planning of today's central bank). Time Magazine, April 14, 1924, said of Baker Senior---

"He is twice as rich as the original J.P. Morgan. At age 84 when he has retired from many directorates, he dominates half a dozen railroads, several banks, scores of industrial concerns."

In 1997, Karenna Gore, daughter of seriously corrupt politico Al Gore, became daughter in law of Pilgrims Society member David Tevele Schiff (born 1936).

In 1942, Walter Bedell Smith became secretary of the combined Chiefs of Staff of American armed forces and afterwards, Ambassador to the Soviet Union, 1946-1948, then he was Truman's chief at the Central Intelligence Agency. He held decorations from 13 governments and was a member of the Order of the British Empire. The Pilgrims Society at its start in 1902-1903 had major military figures on both sides of the Atlantic as members---including generals from both sides in the Civil War---for the purpose of planning and instigating the World Wars and regional conflicts!

"For many years there have been rumours of mind control experiments in the United States. In the early 1970s, the first of the declassified information was obtained by author John Marks for his pioneering work, "The Search for the Manchurian Candidate." Over time retired or disillusioned CIA agents and contract employees have broken the oath of secrecy to reveal small portions of their clandestine work. In addition, some research work subcontracted to university researchers has been found to have been underwritten and directed by the CIA."

---Cheryl Hersha in "Secret Weapons: How Two Sisters Were Brainwashed To Kill for Their Country," 2001. None of these books have made any mention of The Pilgrims Society, because none of the authors were so well informed; and the books may have been quashed had they mentioned it. Allen Dulles (Pilgrims Society) succeeded Bedell Smith at the CIA helm.

Current Oregon Democrat Senator Ron Wyden stated---

"Authorities this broad give the national security bureaucracy the power to scrutinize the personal lives of every law-abiding American. It demonstrates a complete disregard for the responsibilities entrusted to us by the Founding Fathers to maintain robust checks and balances on the power of any arm of the government. What happens to our government, our civil liberties and our basic democracy if the surveillance state is allowed to grow unchecked? As we have seen in recent days, the intelligence leadership is determined to hold on to this authority. Merging the ability to conduct surveillance that reveals every aspect of a person's life with the ability to conjure up the legal authority to execute that surveillance, and finally, removing any accountable judicial oversight, creates the opportunity for unprecedented influence over our system of government. It is a fundamental principle of American democracy that laws should not be public only when it is convenient for government officials to make them public. Secret law violates those basic principles. It has no place in America."

Arthur Dean of 48 Wall Street was probably one of the dozen most influential attorneys in American history and a director of many corporations including the Bank of New York and was "a key advisor to numerous U.S. Presidents"

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Arthur_Dean Dean was a delegate to the United Nations and director of two key Pilgrims Society subsidiaries---the Council on Foreign Relations and the Asia Society. Finletter was a key founder of the United Nations in 1945; he openly advocated world government under a single central power (the goal of the Royals, sponsors of The Pilgrims Society) and was Ambassador to NATO, 1961-1965. Additionally he was appointed to Secretary of the Air Force, during which time he maintained the official attack against Northrop Aviation, started by his predecessor Stuart Symington (Pilgrims) because Jack Northrop (not a member) refused a lowball buyout offer from Convair, owned by Atlas Corporation, controlled by Pilgrims Society member Floyd Odlum! Odlum was claimed to be one of the ten richest people in America as of 1933

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Floyd_Odlum Harry Ward of 1 Wall Street was another financier and head of the New York Clearing House Association.

Grayson Kirk helped found the United Nations in 1945 and was president of Columbia University and on various large corporation boards including Mobil Oil and IBM; he married into the Sands family, as did Walter Sands Marvin, who was a war profiteer in both British planned World Wars through the aviation industry. For John G. Jackson's fascinating background and more details on these other "gentlemen" whose organization still continues to hide in the dark, see <http://silverstealers.net/tss.html> (this is the continually updated version). Ahh yes, banker and financier Douglas was a Newmont Gold Mining Company director who advocated capping the gold price and was Ambassador to England; on October 21, 1957, he was seated next to the Crown, patron of The Pilgrims Society, at a meeting at the Waldorf Astoria; Aldrich was a Chase bank executive whose father was the Senator Aldrich who ram-rodged the Federal Reserve Act to passage; the Winthrops are another very old-line Pilgrims Society family dating back to the 17th century Governor of Massachusetts Bay Colony! The Winthrops are related to the Dudleys (William Dudley, very likely a Pilgrims Society member, today heads the N.Y. Fed Bank, stalling to deliver Germany's gold!) Additionally, Obama's Secretary of State, the macabre John Forbes Kerry (Skull & Bones, the inferior group) is a Pilgrims Society member descended from the Winthrops and Dudleys and is gold and silver stealer Franklin Roosevelt's 4th cousin, twice removed. "We're mostly family in The Pilgrims Society!"

"Delay is the deadliest form of denial." ---C.N. Parkinson, naval historian.

"This is not happening. This is not real." ---Emily Andrews, author.

"Many professionals have to sign gagging clauses or face the sack if they speak out." ---Beatrix Campbell, author.

"There are dread secrets that none may know and have peace."
---E. Hoffman Price (1898-1988), World War I soldier and boxer.

The 1969 leaked list featured a necrology, suggesting that ordinarily, membership in The Pilgrims Society is for life; additionally, they are known to have an ongoing "waiting list" for membership, which the last I knew is restricted to a maximum of 700. Those of the waiting list can be expected to be fully in step with the organizations goals, as to their personal actions; meaning, their impact is the same as members in standing.

Francis N. Bangs was grandson of the founder of the New York City Bar Association in 1870 (today known as the Association of the Bar of the City of New York; JPMorganChase attorneys in the dismissed silver lawsuit are ABCNY members---and may also be Pilgrims members). The older Bangs was closely associated with the Stetson family, attorneys for the J.P. Morgan (Pilgrims) interests; and later execs in the Morgan firms and corporation directors. David Havelock Bellamore invented the armored car in 1910 and held 14 patents. Casimir De Rham descended from the original Swiss Consul in New York, Henri Casimir De Rham (1822) and also from John Motley Morehead, Governor of North Carolina (1841-1845; Morehead became president of the North Carolina Railroad) and from Rufus Patterson, founder of American Machine & Foundry (later AMF Industries)

<http://www.legacy.com/obituaries/BostonGlobe> Morehead's grandson was associated with Union Carbide Corporation, a large silver user. Freeman was associated with Standard Oil and was probably related to an earlier member, Alden Freeman, son of a Standard Oil Treasurer. Alden was the driving force behind the 17th Amendment, allowing for direct election of Senators (rather than being appointed by State legislatures), thereby removing much local control and transferring Senate control to Wall Street!

Everett Colgate Jessup was an MD and heir to the Colgate Palmolive fortune. The Pilgrims Society has several dozen MD's as members at any given time for two reasons. First, members visit them for confidentiality, and in case of delirium, this helps prevent Society secrets from leaking; and more importantly, the medical field is suited to be The Society's final answer for draining wealth from the world and especially, the U.S.A. and the U.K. Jessup's daughter Joan married John Kean Jr., daughter of a New Jersey Congressman, Senator, attorney and banker. Joan's uncle was a Congressman; in the Kean ancestry the Keans are related to the Winthrops (Pilgrims Society), the Livingstons (large scale colonial landowners, one was first governor of New Jersey, Pilgrims Society) and to the Roosevelts (Julian Kean Roosevelt, Pilgrims Society). In the Kean genealogy we also find Hamilton Fish, 16th Governor of New York, who was also a Senator and U.S. Secretary of State (1869-1877). Today we notice Tom Kean, Pilgrims Society, who was New Jersey Governor (1982-1990), after which he was president of Drew University for 15 years, and chaired the infamous 911 Commission, late 2002 into 2004, having been appointed by Crown loyalist, President George Bush Jr. (Pilgrims Society). Tom Kean is a trustee of the Carnegie Corporation of New York <http://carnegie.org/about-us/board-of-directors/thomas-h-kean/> where they state he received the "Pilgrims of the United States Medallion of Service to the Nation," presumably for his cover up of the planning of the 911 attacks! Very sardonic it is about these Pilgrims, that they have such an award---WHEN ALMOST NO AMERICANS ARE EVEN AWARE THEY EXIST!

League of Nations (world government) supporter <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Julian> Julian S. Myrick of Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York became father in law of Pilgrims Society member Charles E. Saltzman (Rhodes Scholar, son of a Major General and a Major General himself). Saltzman, a Rhodes Scholar and Order of the British Empire and decorated by a half dozen other governments, became a Goldman Sachs partner in 1956 and headed the English Speaking Union of the U.S. (another Pilgrims Society front), 1961-1966. Thomas Waverly Palmer was counsel to Standard Oil of New Jersey (which became ExxonMobil) and honorary life president of the Pan American Society, a Pilgrims Society front for exploitation south of the border from Mexico to South America; PAS conferences led to the creation in 1948 of the OAS, Organization of American States, an attempt at regional world government. The Pan American Society, founded in 1910 by assorted Pilgrims Society wheelhorses as Carnegie foundations official, Secretary of State and Senator Elihu Root <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pan> was alleged to have been "for the promotion of the sentiment of brotherhood" (those eight words verbatim appear in the bylaws of The Pilgrims Society!) Sulzberger was a Rockefeller Foundation trustee (1938-1957) and chairman of the New York Times, which often editorialized against silver money since it was founded in 1851.

George Clinton Textor of Marine Midland Bank & Trust and the anti-silver Bankers Club of America was a director of scores of large corporations and a Presidential elector in 1956. John Fairfield Thompson became chairman in 1951 of INCO, International Nickel Company of Canada <http://mininghalloffame.ca/inductees/s> and wrote "Platinum Silver Alloys" in 1906. Tinker (real estate and railroads) was president of the Uruguayan American Association, similar to the Pan American Society, but specifically with an eye to exploitation of Uruguay. Walton was a Wall Street attorney who was with the Emergency Fleet Corporation, the entity The Pilgrims Society used to profit from naval operations during World War I and was in the same law firm with Charles Rushmore (Pilgrims charter member), after whom Mount Rushmore, South Dakota, is named; he was the largest single donor to the Presidential sculptures on the mountain. Theodore Weicker derived his fortune from Squibb Pharmaceuticals and other sources and was an official (1953-1957) of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and a member of the Order of the British Empire. His grandson, Lowell Weicker, considered a "Rockefeller Republican," was a Congressman,

Senator, then 85th Governor of Connecticut and was a director of World Wrestling Entertainment for 12 years. As Senator he was for forced school bussing and against prayer in school <http://www.cslib.org/archives/Finding> Whelpley was an executive with the silver suppressing Chase National Bank and represented the Guggenheim mining interests, which included silver credits with copper output. He is mentioned in "American Express---The People Who Built the Great Financial Empire" (1987, page 215 et seq.)

"In every community there is a class of people profoundly dangerous to the rest. I don't mean the criminals. For them we have punitive sanctions. I mean the leaders. Invariably the most dangerous people seek the power."

---Saul Bellow, author (1915-2005).

"The worship of power is an old religion."

---George Santayana (1863-1952), Spanish philosopher.

"You know what kind of person it takes to run for President? Not normal. They could start out okay, but by the time they reach that level they've sold their soul to the devil so many times and stomped the guts out of enough people that they are definitely not like you and me, not even close."

---David Baldacci, bestselling author.

“Thus did a handful of rapacious citizens come to control all that was worth controlling in America.”

---Kurt Vonnegut, satirist.

“Power is linked with war, and a society wishing to limit war's ravages can find no other way than by limiting the scope of power.”

---Bertrand De Jouvenel (1903-1987), French economist.

“Wealth aggregates and becomes political power. Corporation is just the most recent name for it.”

---Daniel Suarez, thriller author.

“Everywhere the weak execrate the powerful, before whom they cringe; and the powerful beat them like sheep whose wool and flesh they sell.”

---Voltaire (1694-1778), French writer.

“There is a cruelty that lurks in some men’s souls which is only released when they have other men in their power.”

---Morgan Llywelyn, 1999 Celtic Woman of the Year Award.

“We must dilute and disperse all forms of concentrated power that refuse to be accountable to majority wishes.”

---Bryant McGill, bestselling author.

“These people have made many rules that the rich may break but the poor may not. They take their tithes from the poor and weak to support the rich and those who rule. They claim this mother of ours, the earth, for their own. Only seven years ago we made a treaty by which we were assured that the buffalo country should be left to us forever. Now they threaten to take that away from us. My brothers, shall we submit or shall we say to them: First kill me before you take possession of my land."

---Sitting Bull (1831-1890) winner at the Battle of the Little Big Horn, June 25, 1876. In 1873 New York railroad interests had General Custer protecting their surveyors from Native American raids; in 1874 there was a skirmish and the discovery of gold in South Dakota's Black Hills was announced, and the Money Power decided to act---Custer's wife was even an acquaintance of the Roosevelts, who had also been in the Chinese opium business, by which they obtained funds to buy much choice real estate in Manhattan and elsewhere and large shareholdings in companies such as utilities and banks! The May 6 and 7 Dallas Morning News, 2013, announced Elliot Roosevelt Jr., grandson of gold and silver stealing FDR, has acquired oil and gas rights in West Texas potentially worth $54 billion at $95 per barrel oil; he is very likely a Pilgrims Society member; the 1974 leaked list has John A.; Julian Kean; and Franklin Roosevelt Jr. (son of the great gold and silver stealer) as members!

The Pilgrims Society is the last great secret of modern history--- and history's greatest Pandora's Box! It is easily the most powerful and the most dangerous organization in history. What can be the end result of their intentions besides being able to go anywhere and issue orders such as "I want that man killed!" and "Bring that woman to me!" The far better known Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) founded by Pilgrims in 1921 and managed by them since, features many gold and silver suppressors as members. All CFR influence is actually Pilgrims influence!

---L.M. Montgomery (1874-1942) Canadian author.

“An unleashed secret is a terrible force.”

---Serbian author Tea Obreht.

What is so hard to conceptualize about many powerful people who aren't powerful enough on their own to accomplish a large scale plan; yet if many powerful people all pull together to achieve it, now it becomes feasible? Nixon became a Pilgrims member on March 24, 1969 (see Silver Stealers for documentation). On August 15, 1971, Nixon infamously closed the “gold window” at Treasury, for foreign redemption of dollars---1,240 days after he became a member of The Most Secret Society of world bankers! I have attempted to discuss this with Bill Murphy and got the response that I do “superb work,” along with his denial that GATA is censoring my findings; however, GATA has not mentioned me since May 2009, when they awarded me a skunk-sprayed trophy and still didn't mention The Pilgrims Society <http://www.gata.org/node/7424> GATA bills itself as the leaders of the precious metals community, yet refuse mention of these findings on The Pilgrims Society. Yes Bill, you and the August Chris Powell ARE refusing coverage and it is the message---not me---that matters most! Instead of blindly supporting GATA---ask them “Why no coverage for this topic?” Is it because of Jeff Nielson's charge that there's Rothschild influence in GATA? Rothschilds through Cecil Rhodes were among The Pilgrims Society's founders; a Rothschild in The Pilgrims London was father in law to the chairman of major silver price suppressor Barclay's.

On August 1, 1960, Nixon, who would later deliver major blows against gold and silver, posed with Pilgrims Society member Nelson Aldrich Rockefeller---

Anyone remember President Gerald Ford (Pilgrims Society) creating the Rockefeller Commission to Investigate the CIA? It was widely regarded as a whitewash <http://history-> matters.com/archive/contents/church/contents_church_reports_rockcomm.htm

Members of the Commission <http://history-matters.com/archive/church/rockcomm/html/Rockefeller> included other Pilgrims Society members including the gold leasing, anti-silver former Treasury Secretary, Douglas Dillon; and John T. Connor, former Commerce Secretary and a director of the silver suppressing Chase Manhattan Bank and chairman of the silver using Allied Chemical Corporation. Not surprisingly, the Rockefeller Commission tapped some personnel from the earlier Warren Commission which covered up the JFK assassination! 1975 was a year of triumph for Pilgrims Society member Nelson Rockefeller, as in that year, Congressional interests friendly to him and his megabanker brother, David, also created the Commodity Futures Trading Commission to cover for remaining decades of naked silver shorting activities!

Pilgrims member Nixon created the infamous Cost of Living Council, which by way of Fascism imposed a $1.61 per ounce price cap on silver produced by U.S.A. silver miners! This was a lower price than the average price paid by members of the Silver Users Association during the laughably named silver "auctions" to them by the Treasury in 1967 to fall 1970; immediately after that corrupt episode ended, silver prices collapsed on the COMEX in spring 1971, always in defiance of free market basics! For details, see "The Silver Raiders," originally released in September 2003 <http://nosilvernationalization.org/24.pdf> Average price received for the 304,886,975 silver ounces during the auctions ("taxpayer and miner subsidized giveaways to support silver price suppression") was a mere $1.84 per ounce---Wall Street Journal, November 11, 1970, page 16. On May 21, 1971, COMEX silver fell to $1.62 per ounce on bearish statements by Englehard (Silver Users Association); afterwards Nixon ordered silver price-capped to please his Pilgrims Society overlords, at $1.61 an ounce, as reported on July 24, 1972, page 16, Wall Street Journal.

John Hay Whitney was Ambassador to England and a major inheritor of the galaxy-size Standard Oil fortune, which in the 1870s was supplying editorials to over 300 newspapers! Both his grandfathers held Presidential cabinet posts! John Hay was Secretary of State (1898-1905) and was private secretary and assistant to Abraham Lincoln http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/John_Hay Did Hay play any role in setting up Lincoln to be assassinated? I have not delved into this but do regard it as possible; as tricky as the Money Power is--- Andrew Jackson had to fire two (2) Treasury Secretaries, Louis McLane and William Duane, who both refused to comply with Jackson's lawful orders to withdraw U.S. government funds from Nicholas Biddle's United States Bank! Jackson then installed Roger Taney at Treasury and he immediately delivered the "head shot" to the Bank! Details are in "Andy By God Jackson!"

<http://nosilvernationalization.org/70.pdf>

After the Bank was squashed, Biddle illegally used his inky, unfunded paper notes to start a second renegade bank in Pennsylvania, of much smaller power, but by which he connived his way into much land ownership!

"During the 1970s Whitney was listed as one of the ten wealthiest men in the world"

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/John_Hay_Whitney He was a major publishing tycoon in addition to many other vast income streams and it would be interesting to see if any of his newspapers had an editorial stance against silver---one of at least hundreds of threads of research on The Pilgrims Society I still have not found time for.

David Bruce married into the Mellon fortune; his father, Andrew Mellon, was very much a confirmed silver suppressor who very savagely cheated American silver miners during his tenure as Treasury Secretary under Harding, Coolidge and Hoover (see Silver Stealers for details). Mellon was on The Pilgrims Executive committee, 1933-1937 and was a heavy holder of shares in over 300 corporations and was easily the greatest financial genius of the twentieth century. In "Paul Mellon, Portrait of an Oil Baron" (1974) page 47, the author cited Drew Pearson, a national columnist at the time---

"For eight years Mellon dominated the national capital. For eight years his word was law with every banker throughout the land. For eight years Presidents served under him. So powerful was his influence, so great his prestige that he told them what to do and his judgment was final."

David Bruce remains the only American to have ever been Ambassador to France, Germany and England. Bruce's older brother was also a Pilgrims member, and their family was deeply involved in the banking system in Maryland and had other large holdings. James Bruce was military aide to President Wilson at the Treaty of Versailles, at which these British-American conspirators intentionally guaranteed a second World War by imposing unbearably punitive terms on Germany---which Lord Curzon (Pilgrims Society) famously said, "It is not a peace treaty, it is simply a break in hostilities." The Earl of Dwyfor (Pilgrims Society), made a very similar statement; he was British Minister of Munitions in World War One! Just before WWI, England controlled over 17 million square miles of territory and Germany, 1,337,466, a ratio of 12.7 to one; from 1925 to 1939 Britain seized 1,364,023 square miles, whereas in 1939 Germany seized barely 100,000 square miles of Poland. Hitler need never have come to power---members of The Pilgrims Society caused his mass appeal to Germans! The Maryland Bruces trace to Robert the Bruce (deceased 1329), the famous Scottish nobleman. Since The Union of the Crowns in 1603AD, all British monarchs are descended in part from the Bruce line. This is another case in point of America's most powerful organization, The Pilgrims Society, being a Royalist, British Red Coat organization---and the American public is under profound darkness concerning its baneful existence. "Black as a raven's wing in a coal mine at midnight," they are invisible to the public. Andrew Mellon's fortune was alleged to be "equal to two-thirds of all the gold in the entire world" by his Congressional antagonist, Texas Representative Wright Patman. On April 28, 1931, Patman started impeachment proceedings to remove Mellon from the Treasury Department. As far off as Australia, newspapers had to report another of Mellon's incredible thefts! The Sydney Morning Herald, January 16, 1932, page 11 stated---

"The Secretary of the Treasury, Andrew Mellon, was charged by Wright Patman, a Texas lawyer and a member of the House of Representatives, with having taken part in a credit extension to Columbia, arranged by New York bankers, about the time a large oil concession was granted to the Gulf Oil Company, WHICH IS OWNED BY MELLON."

Mellon was saved from impeachment by being appointed Ambassador to Great Britain, our "Pilgrim Partner" (a detail unknown to the public). Immediately to the left of that news article appeared "Panic In China" subtitled "On Verge of Bankruptcy," a story from Shanghai about the collapsing economy, bond market and banking system. It didn't mention this was due to the tremendous British attack against silver out of British India led by Mellon's fellow Pilgrims member, Viceroy Irwin (later president of The Pilgrims London!) This massive global crime which caused the Great Depression, described by Idaho

Senator William Borah as "one of the most brutal acts ever committed in history," and is covered in great detail in "The Silver Stealers." These Pilgrims Society members, especially those in the inner circle, have been rampaging across the map of the globe for generations like the bubonic plague in mid-14th century Europe, monopolistically seizing wealth, forming cartels in diamonds; petroleum; railroads; ocean shipping; aviation; military industries; steel; copper mining; textiles; chemicals; insurance; banking; agriculture; real estate; pharmaceuticals and many other sectors, and intentionally causing terrible monetary dislocations to others. They are the ones who shoved the world off silver first, then gold, in the monetary system so as to better buy up land and other assets with this "money" they create and force acceptance of by legal tender laws! They did this on an enormous scale in the Panic of 1873 and still more so, as the Depression caused millions of American farmers to go broke! Roosevelt drove many thousands of small landlords out of business with 7 years of "rent controls," during and after which stronger interests who could hold out (Pilgrims Society land barons) could seize millions of properties in tax and bankruptcy sales, at rock bottom rates! All land titles everywhere in all countries must be investigated to see if they trace to members of The Pilgrims organization---to either branch. If confirmed as owned for example by a trust, foundation or offshore bank managed by any member, the land titles must be revoked, and placed at auction to those who can prove they are not members of any globalist organization!

Think of America as a huge, tall tree with vast branches and an enormous expansive canopy, and The Pilgrims Society as a nest of leaf eating webworms concealed in the crest of the tree; this is an apt characterization of their "work." Think also of this tree as containing a large honeybee hive; and formidable wasps (Pilgrims Society members and their subordinates in subsidiary groups) ambush individual bees in transit to and from the hive! Thomas Gates was a partner in Drexel & Company (1940-1953) and became Secretary of Defense in 1960 and chairman of Morgan Guaranty Trust in 1965 and was on various boards including General Electric; Gates was a 35 year trustee of the University of Pennsylvania and in 1977-1977 was liaison with rank of Ambassador to the People's Republic of China; Harold Helm represented Chemical Bank, in which the silver using Du Ponts (Pilgrims Society) had early ownership and was a Princeton University trustee and director of many large corporations; Dean Rusk (Rhodes Scholar) was Secretary of State and headed the Rockefeller Foundation.

Arleigh Burke was an Admiral and chief of naval operations in the Eisenhower and Kennedy years who was later placed on the boards of defense contractors; in 1973 Burke was envoy of the United States to the funeral of King Gustaf VI of Sweden, who married the daughter of the Duke of Connaught, president of The Pilgrims London (1917-1942); Pyne (a banking, railroad and electric utility magnate) descended from a colossal 19th century railroad and banking baron with a $70 million plus fortune in 1882---Moses Taylor, whose father was a close associate of Crown loyalist, John Jacob Astor, main domestic power in the second United States Bank; Taylor's fortune at least doubled during the Panic of 1837, as did Astor's much larger fortune. The Pynes also became Winthrop relatives. Henry Sturgis Morgan (third generation Pilgrims member), son of J.P. Morgan Jr., founded confirmed silver suppressor Morgan Stanley and was a director of large silver user, General Electric. Keith Funston was president the New York Stock Exchange and was on many boards such as Times Mirror Company, Republic Steel and Chemical Bank. Herbert Brownell was Attorney General of the United States,

1953-1957, and previously chaired the Republican National Committee. He was U.S. envoy at the Permanent Court of Arbitration in the Netherlands and in 1972 Nixon's representative to deliberations with Mexico over the Colorado River. His daughter, Ann Brownell Sloane, became a Pilgrims Society member in 1996; the Sloane name is most likely that of another line, related to Secretary of State Cyrus Vance, whose son (also likely a member) is now Manhattan District Attorney; in 2008 Ann Brownell Sloane continued her Pilgrims Society activities by joining Rockefeller Advisors

<http://give.rockpa.org/2008/09/10/ann-brownell-sloane-joins-rockefeller> Sloane is director of the Investment Fund for Foundations, an entity in the billions, and has contacts in and out of government in Russia, mainland China, France, Latin America and the Middle East

<http://www.civildcourageprize.org/downloads/C> Maxwell Taylor was a World War 2 General then was joint U.S. and U.N. commander in the Far East, 1954-1955. His Pilgrims Society pals installed him as chairman of Mexican Light & Power Company in 1959 till 1962 when he became chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. He was Ambassador to South Vietnam (1964-1965) and in 1968 was named chairman of the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board. He held decorations from 19 governments including the Order of the British Empire. Taylor was a member of the Army-Navy Club in the District of Columbia, annual site of Silver Users Association meetings. Dillon was a second generation Pilgrims member associated with Chase Manhattan Bank, the Rockefeller Foundation and other entities, and as Treasury Secretary, 1961-1965, led the battle against silver coinage and fed Treasury silver to the silver users.

Eli Whitney Debevoise, offices at 870 United Nations Plaza, was a Rockefeller Foundation trustee, director of the Bank of New York at 48 Wall Street, director of the International Commission of Jurists, whose son in law, Harold Harris Healy Jr., became a Pilgrims member. His great, great grandfather, Eli Whitney, invented the cotton gin. John N. Irwin II was son in law of Pilgrims Society member Thomas Watson Sr. of IBM (a man who had his hands on literally dozens of top level levers of power in many Pilgrims Society front organizations). Irwin became an IBM director and Ambassador to France; he was preceded by his brother in law, Arthur K. Watson (Pilgrims Society) of IBM and succeeded in Paris by Kenneth Rush (Pilgrims Society) of Union Carbide, Silver Users Association members who caused the 1984 Bhopal, India, poison gas disaster, known as the "Hiroshima of the Chemical Industry." Irwin was a director of the Foreign Bondholders Protective Council and United States Trust Company of New York, an institution dominated by the Astors (Pilgrims Society). In 1947 Irwin was with the Joint Philippine-U.S. Financial Commission which fastened a central bank on the islands---and most likely the original plans for silver leasing from the Philippines! Irwin was a Princeton University trustee and a member of the avowedly anti-silver Economic Club of New York. 1947 was also the year the British fastened a central bank on India as they were laughably readying to grant India its alleged independence---we see that CB as a gold antagonist since then, in keeping with British policy! Did you know? England doesn't send Ambassadors to India! It sends "High Commissioners," like Pilgrims Society member Baron Gore-Booth, who was working British wiles in India during the critical time of the war against silver coinage in the U.S. (waged by his "Pilgrim Partners") during 1960-1965! In line with The Pilgrims policy of "keeping matters in the family," his son, Sir David Gore-Booth, became British High Commissioner to India in 1996 after being Ambassador to Saudi Arabia. He is currently listed as a director of the silver stealing HSBC Middle East division (Hong Kong & Shanghai Bank, Britain's old opium bank for China); of British-Arab Commercial Bank; Saudi-British Bank; Vedanta Resources; and many other positions. <http://www.vedantaresources.com/> Vedanta is the largest mining and non-ferrous metals producer in India with major operations also in Australia and Zambia; it produces a half dozen metals including silver; and employs close to 100,000.

Who are the current executive committee members of The Pilgrims Society? Who are their vice presidents? I have several names, all eyebrow-raisers; yet full info is not yet to be had. The entire roster is another problem in itself, as is that of the London branch (which also represents European business, banking and royalty in more depth than Bilderberg!) Miner Hill Warner, who is at least a second generation member, son of Bradford Arnold Warner of European-American Banking Corporation, is currently head of The Pilgrims in New York. Warner senior was a member of the anti-silver Economic Club of New York and a director of Gilman Paper, which was bled for hundreds of millions of dollars and left thousands of employees (perhaps over 2,000) noncompensated when it went bust <http://www.forbes.com/forbes/200> Please ask your members of Congress to subpoena The Pilgrims for a roster, including their highly subversive waiting list! Exposure will hinder all their awful activities!

I have exerted for more than nine years to make the precious metals community aware of The Pilgrims Society. I am grateful to those sites that have extended some opportunity to help "lasso" this secretive group to try and drag it into the light of day. I certainly cannot improve the mentality of anyone who refuses to recognize this organized conspiracy against silver and gold. It would be a funny joke to say that if their brains were placed in buzzards, the birds would fly backwards, were it not disastrously tragic that so many have this cavalier attitude of allowing injurious plans to go unopposed due to refusal to even recognize their existence. I ask the "voting public" among the metals investors to bring pressure on all sites refusing coverage to this topic. Conspirators have the President in their vest pocket---the one person who can issue an Executive Order taking our gold and silver as FDR did! Those who refuse to recognize the relevance of this situation are wantonly stubborn. To allege the information "is not important, as none of the metals conference personalities have said so" is to entrust your rationality to buffoons, or those who are well behind the curve. This presentation is only a fraction of the information I've assembled on history's most influential organization <http://silverstealers.net/tss.html>

King World News? Eric King? Matt Taibbi? Wake up!

JPMorganChase, now finally massively long gold, does not guarantee the start of a free market in metals is at hand! Once naked shorting and OTC derivatives become ineffective to hinder free trading, unfortunately, other Pilgrims Society tricks can be invoked, including windfall profits taxes; so called speculators or hoarders taxes; and outright nationalization of both hard metals and the mines---at "non-inflationary" prices---while their own holdings are perfectly insulated---because the nature of The Pilgrims Society is to use government power to crush wealth outside its influence circles! This is why we must expose them!

This is why it is a crime of negligence for metals community leaders to black out these details! The Pilgrims Society would certainly have sued me if my allegations about them weren't spot-on, and they have the best attorneys (and judges) in the country---but not for "the truth being an absolute defense against libel" principle! Why is there this "if GATA doesn't cover Savoie's findings, we won't cover it either" stance on the part of so many? Where the truth is concerned, why should punches be "pulled?"

“Nothing in this world is hidden forever. The inevitable law of revelation is one of the laws of nature: the lasting preservation of a secret is a miracle which the world has never yet seen.”

---Wilkie Collins, author (1824-1889).

Briefly on the subject of metals confiscation/nationalization--- while I am as opposed to this as anyone, the fact that it already happened in 1933-1934 places us at risk of highly placed persons (Pilgrims Society members) hollering “precedent.” While the 1930’s events did not include door to door searches and so forth, the fact is, just frightening and intimidating the public and bombarding them with overbearing announcements and ominous threats yielded the conspirators 113,031,000 ounces silver and large quantities of gold (see 312 page report) at <http://nosilvernationalization.org/96.pdf> These Pilgrims Society members of today realize that if they can make another huge haul of gold and silver merely by jerking the President’s chain--- why should they not do so, claiming the usual trumped up “national emergency” conditions? Even without enforcement, they can expect to gain vast wealth by mere announcements and, just as important to them, break those holding monetary metals! For this and other absolutely urgent reasons we must expose The Pilgrims Society, in order to discourage these inter-related conspirators from attempting such repeat of Roosevelt’s theft! Even FDR’s daughter in law is today “a member of The Pilgrims of the United States of America and The Pilgrims of Great Britain headed by the Queen of England” <http://www.northwood.edu/includes/dw.asp> This is the same member of the Royal family whose husband, Pilgrims member Prince Philip, personally controls over 800 organizations http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Prince_Philip His uncle, Pilgrims Society member Earl Mountbatten of Burma, was the last British

Governor General of India; he left the RBI, Reserve Bank of India, fastened on the Indian people, in order to suppress precious metals after the British occupiers left! And of course the Queen feels that silver should be worth $5 Canadian paper "money," and gold a mere $50 Canadian, which is why the Royal Canadian Mint stamps their ounces with those absurd lowball figures!

The Bilderberg Conferences are not the problem! They were founded as a means for the superior organization to influence transitory politicians and non-royal heads of state like former Presidential contenders John Edwards and Rick Perry. The fact that The Pilgrims Society has more members than Bilderberg is accounted for in this---there are more king makers than there are kings; there are only several dozen nations represented at Bilderberg so it has no need for more members; and the meeting brings in other important persons who aren't Pilgrims Society members. The Trilateral Commission (1973), another Pilgrims Society front, was founded mainly to bring highly placed Japanese into the globalist plan; however, Pilgrims members already founded the Japan Society in 1907! The Pilgrims to date remain the only major globalist group still refusing to release membership rosters into the public domain. This is because the group holds the management reins of the better known groups, and because it is the central committee of synthetic money creation! This is the LAST HIDEOUT of the anti-precious metals globalists! I am concerned they may be scheming to play Russia and China off against each other in the Middle East, so that the "Pilgrim Partners," the Anglo-American alliance, can again bound forward in its stated 200 year plan for world domination (Review of Reviews, New York, May 1902, pages 557-558!)

"The fact is we all know that there exists in the world an order different from that in which we pass our days. If we reveal its existence people think that we are crazy."

---Lisa Unger, author.

Susan Athey, professor of economics at Stanford, appears on the 2013 Bilderberg list <http://www.zerohedge.com/news/2013> It is so useless of Zero Hedge, another allegedly “hot-shot” website, to report on Bilderberg while ignoring The Pilgrims Society! So what about Susan? John R. Drexel IV (related to English nobility tracing back 700 years) is on The Pilgrims executive committee as of 2003, a multi-generational Pilgrims Society member and is descended from the Anthony Drexel who in 1871 was senior partner to J.P. Morgan in Drexel, Morgan & Company http://en.wikipedia.org/?title=J.P._Morgan. Anthony Drexel’s daughter married into the Biddle family, of the second United States Bank! Major General Anthony A.J. Drexel Biddle appeared in the leaked Pilgrims list for 1957; the Drexels are related to the Schermerhorns, large scale Dutch colonial landowners represented elsewhere in The Society, who long ago were among those receiving huge waterfront land grants in a 30 mile radius around New York City. Rich list rankings can be massaged any way these old-line Crown conspirators want them massaged! Drexel IV’s wife, Jacqueline Astor, represents over $100 billion in Manhattan real estate still owned by her family (New York Social Diary has since deleted the reference!) Drexel Burnham Lambert at one time held the COMEX silver suppression reins! Jacqueline is of the Astor family of the second United States Bank, forerunner of the Federal Reserve! I am not concerned with pencil pushing university professors nor with transitory politicians competing for the White House, but with king makers in The Pilgrims Society!

“The person in the saddle is not the one holding the reins.”

---Cypriani Regis, author.

Montana Congressman Jacob Thorkelson, who entered much information into the Congressional Record about The Pilgrims Society---including a few dozen names of members---on August 19, 1940 referred to an address by Joseph H. Choate, Ambassador to England and Vanderbilt family operative (rated the 7th wealthiest family in history---Choate was president of The Pilgrims U.S., 1912-1917), as saying that those members who would many years later celebrate the start of the second century of The Pilgrims in 2003---

“...will have cause to bless their fathers that they founded this Society AND KEPT THE WORLD ON THE RIGHT TRACK.”

Choate’s father’s cousin, Rufus Choate, supported the Fiscal Bank Act of 1841 (another attempt at fastening a central bank on the country); President John Tyler vetoed it as “an act of gross moral turpitude,” whereupon the Whig Party staged a violent riot outside the White House; that caused the founding of the Secret Service to protect the President

<http://nosilvernationalization.org/65.pdf> In 1924 the Vanderbilts linked by marriage to the Cecil family, descended from William Cecil, 1st Baron Burghley (1520-1598), generally considered one of the half dozen most influential families in English history (yes---Pilgrims Society representation!) Choate was president of the New York State Bar Association, the New York City Bar Association, and the American Bar Association. In 1933 Choate’s son, a Bank of New York director (also a Pilgrim) was named head of the Federal Alcohol Control Administration by FDR. Choate Jr. was father in law to Charles Barney Harding (1899-1979, Pilgrims leaked list for 1969), who assumed control of Smith Barney investment firm in the 1940s and was great grandson of Jay

Cooke! Between 1862-1865 Cooke raised $1,341,000,000 in bond proceeds for the Northern (D.C.) government http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jay_Cooke Cooke financed the Northern Pacific Railway but went bust in the Panic of 1873; however by 1880 he was again worth megamillions due to a silver mine in Utah (and the fact that he was "notorious for stalling the deposit of bond proceeds into Federal coffers") he doubtless reaped hidden millions in short term interest, hidden away, which enabled him to take over the Utah silver mine. Genealogies in this organization are easily the biggest spiderweb I've ever seen. The Money Power bankrupted silver in 1873, and reeled in silver production later from all over the map!

Who do you think orchestrated so much of world affairs before Bilderberg was started in 1954, with Pilgrims member David Rockefeller taking the founding lead as he did 19 years later in the Trilaterals? It is time to ascend higher up the ladder and pressure The Pilgrims Society to become fully visible! Other Bilderbergers like Jeff Bezos of Amazon may well be Pilgrims members, but as the group still refuses cooperation, we cannot presently know; asking him would be quite useless! The Pilgrims have members in three informal layers---outer circle (still hidden from public awareness); inner circle---the fewest and most powerful members; and middle circle, lieutenants and smaller scale allies of inner circle members. The inner circle I expect contains such names as Windsor (British Royals); Rothschild; Rockefeller; Mellon; Du Pont; Warburg; Astor; Drexel; Vanderbilt; Cecil; and a few others---maybe. The middle circle would feature Milbanks; Pynes; Roosevelts; Harrimans; Firestones; Schiffs; Speyers; Morgans; Tukes; Jardines; Keswicks; Grenfells; Livingstons; Delafields; Reynoldses; Cullmans; Dukes; Whitneys; Pratts; Aldriches; Flaglers; Winthrops and up to two dozen others. The outer layer consists of persons in key places in universities, foundations, Federal government, some state officials in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Pennsylvania, some U.S. Senators---and assorted corporation executives and ambassadors. Even the outer layer is extremely influential.

“Secrets and lies... Everyone in the world deals with these every day of their lives.”

---Lacey Thorn, author.

The ultimate objective must be to force the globalist groups, led by The Pilgrims Society---to disband in order to avoid World War III, or to greatly lessen its ferocity if Anglo-American influences can be deleted!

Absolutely no membership roster of this shadow organization, The Pilgrims Society, has leaked out in 34 years; Joel Van Der Reijden, my European colleague and I, have to rely on other certain methods of identifying a fraction of the current members. Six and a half years after I began exposing The Pilgrims Society, 5 years after Van Der Reijden started making his strong contributions and six months after www.silverstealers.net went up, this shadow group of British Crown activists finally decided to erect a site www.pilgrimsociety.org In the name of God! Please help us bring this anti free market, gold and silver stealing, warmongering organization to the attention of the public! The President, who already crucified the public once before with gold and silver nationalization ("theft") is in the vest pocket of the top metals suppressors---and this is deemed NOT WORTHY OF COVERAGE! FOR ABSOLUTE SHAME! I ask you to contact sites once a month to nag them to cover this! When you are at metals conferences, I ask you to pester all the speakers there why are they refusing to cover this! If these guys were horses, they'd be the sole reason spurs were invented---to get them moving! It is extremely likely that National Security Agency director Keith Alexander is a member of The Pilgrims Society, "the world's most secret organization" (American Opinion Magazine, October 1970, page 22). Don't you want to know who the 2014 members of The Pilgrims organization are? I am certain if we had a list we'd find names like Timothy Mellon; David Rockefeller Jr.; Warren Buffet; George Soros ("My concern is with the world order"); Bill Gates (Order of the British Empire); Jamie Dimon; Alan Greenspan (Sir Alan Greenspan); Ben Bernanke; William Dudley; William McDonough; Michael Bloomberg; Jack Lew; and key figures at State Street Financial; Citigroup; Bank of New York Mellon; Bank America; Wells Fargo; Goldman Sachs; Morgan Stanley; General Electric; Du Pont; Dow Chemical; Chevron Texaco; Exxon Mobil; IBM; Hewlett Packard; Lockheed Martin; Raytheon; General Dynamics; General Motors; Northrop Grumman; Boeing; United Technologies; Navistar; Monsanto and so forth, and key ambassadors, generals, admirals and assorted other top level operators. It is a scandal that so many sites and prominent voices in the metals long community obstinately continue to ignore these findings! Nothing is stopping them other than snobbery, arrogance, or worse---they are "controlled opposition." I believe the former accounts for most of this awful negligence. The entire situation should be about facts---not a refusal to admit being late in arriving, nor some asinine popularity contest, nor an embargo because some "Apollo" type didn't grant some senseless pedigree!
